P.R.I.M.E. T.I.M.E. Interviews & Interrogations July 11-13th 2018

The Depot, 600 E. Depot Street,
Brownwood Texas

Time: 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Cost: $175.00 per person

The P.R.I.M.E. T.I.M.E. interview and interrogations class provides in-depth training on techniques utilized when questioning witnesses and suspects. Attendees will participate in interactive training with class exercises and confession clips that will build confidence needed in the interview room. The three day training will include, room set up, rapport building, learning theme development, body language interview plotting and a slew of other tools. The Houston Police Department has instituted this school as mandatory training for all new detectives. The instructors have been featured on 20/20 and have traveled the United States training officers with this approach. The investigator or detective who is not proficient in this skill is as handicapped as a surgeon who cannot use a scalpel. The professional interrogator requires a substantial amount of knowledge to develop his or her art. The interrogator requires an appreciation of the human condition and the society in which we live, an in-depth awareness of the psychology of human behavior, a mastery of criminal investigation procedures and principles, an understanding of the criminal statutes and an expertise in the operation of the jurisprudence system. P.R.I.M.E.
